Professional Disclosure Statement

Qualifications: I am a Licensed Professional Counselor with a foundation in Biblical principles. I have a Master's degree in Family and Marital Counseling and a Master's degree in Christian Education from Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary. I also received a Bachelor of Arts in Psychology from the University of Arkansas. The education I have received and life experiences have equipped me to counsel with men, marriage, family, teens and groups.

Experience: I have had an internship with the Walsh Counseling Center where I worked with groups, family, marriage, and individuals. I worked as a minister to college students for two years, where I had the opportunity to minister to many people from many different backgrounds and family situations.

Nature of Counseling: My approach to counseling is grounded in the Bible. I believe that Christ is the only true hope of healing. I use the cognitive-behavioral approach and I have found that this theory can be reconciled with my beliefs. I will also use other theories based upon the needs of the client and my abilities. Counseling is a synergistic relationship between the client and counselor working together for the betterment of the client. The client has the responsibility of working both in and out of session on his or her self-determined goals. It is imperative that the client is actively involved in therapy. Homework may be used as part of therapy, not just to have something to do but as a tool to aide in the healing process. The client is responsible for deciding on goals. Both the client and counselor will agree upon these goals. Goals should be specific in nature and attainable.

Fees: Counseling Services will be provided to members of Houston's First Baptist Church and students of First Baptist Academy at the reduced rate of $50 per session. For non-members, services will be provided for a fee of $100 per session. If the fee represents a hardship to you, please let me know, as full and partial fee adjustments are available. The fee for each session will be due at, and must be paid by, the conclusion of each session. Money orders or personal checks made out to "HFBC" are acceptable for payment. We also accept cash and credit cards. The Julianna Poor Memorial Counseling Center of HFBC does not file for reimbursement from health insurance companies. A separate fee will be charged for tests, reports, or expert testimony. As the demand for appointments often exceeds the availability, please notify the Counseling Center receptionist or staff at (713) 335-6462 as soon as possible if you discover that you will not be able to keep an appointment. A late cancellation fee will be charged if less than 24 hours notice is given. Exceptions will be given for emergencies. It is my intention to render services in a professional manner consistent with accepted standards of practice. Our sessions will be 45 minutes in duration for individual counseling and (1 1/2) hours in duration for group counseling.

Counseling Relationship: During the time that we work together, we will meet at a mutually agreed upon frequency for approximately 45 minute sessions. Although our sessions take place in a church setting, and we may go to church together, it is important to remember that our relationship is professional and not social. Our contact will be limited to counseling sessions that you arrange through the counseling center. The policy of the counseling center and professional counselor ethics prohibit the receipt of gifts valued more than $50 by counselors from clients.

Effects of Counseling: At any time, you may initiate a discussion of possible positive or negative effects of entering, not entering, continuing, or discontinuing counseling. While benefits are expected from counseling, specific results are not guaranteed. Counseling is a personal exploration and may lead to major changes in your life perspectives and decisions. These changes may affect significant relationships, your job, and/or your understanding of yourself. Some of these changes could be temporarily distressing. The exact nature of these changes cannot be predicted. Together we will work to achieve the best possible results for you.

Client Rights and Responsibilities: Some clients need only a few counseling sessions to achieve their goals; others may require months or even years of counseling. As a client, you are in complete control and may end our counseling relationship at any time, though I do ask that you participate in a termination session. You also have the right to refuse or discuss modification of any of my counseling techniques or suggestions that you believe might be harmful. You agree to come to counseling free from the influences of drugs including alcohol. I also have the right to terminate our counseling relationship if I believe it is in your best interest.

I assure you that my services will be rendered in a professional manner consistent with accepted legal and ethical standards. If at any time for any reason you are dissatisfied with my services, please let me know. If I am not able to resolve your concerns, you may refer your complaints to Adam Mason, Minister of Counseling Services at (713) 335-6460; the Counseling Center oversight committee (names and phone numbers will be made available upon request); or the Texas Board of Examiners of Professional Counselors at (512) 834-6658.

Referrals: Should you and/or I believe that a referral is needed, I will provide some alternatives including programs and/or people who may be available to assist you. A verbal exploration of alternatives to counseling will also be made available upon request. You will be responsible for contacting and evaluating those referrals and/or alternatives.

Records and Confidentiality: All of our communication becomes part of the clinical record. Records are the property of the Counseling Center. Adult client records are disposed of seven years after the file is closed. Minor client records are disposed of seven years after the client's 18th birthday. Most of our communication is confidential, but the following limitations and exceptions do exist: a) I determine that you are a danger to yourself or someone else; b) you disclose abuse, neglect, or exploitation of a child, elderly, or disabled person; c) you disclose sexual contact with another mental health professional or clergy; d) I am ordered by the court to disclose information; e) you direct me to release your records; or f) I am otherwise required by law to disclose information. If I see you in public, including in the church, I will protect your confidentiality by acknowledging you only if you approach me first. Office clerical personnel will only have enough information to schedule appointments, contact you, and facilitate collection of fees.

In the case of marriage or family counseling, I will keep confidential (within the limits cited above) anything you disclose to me without your family member's knowledge. However, I encourage open communication between family members and I reserve the right to terminate our counseling relationship if I judge the secret to be detrimental to therapeutic progress.

Emergency Contact: The limited resources of the Counseling Center prevent us from providing crisis intervention or intensive counseling. If you have a crisis after office hours, please either contact your physician; call the crisis hotline at (713) 228-1505; or go to the nearest hospital emergency room. If a hospitalization occurs, please contact this office as soon as possible to coordinate your care. You may leave a message for the HFBC on call minister at (713) 957-6760. Please note: the on call minister keeps track of hospitalizations only. He is a minister, not a trained counselor.
