

Our goal as a ministry is to give you a safe and exciting place to do life within the local church. Your emotional, physical and spiritual health are very important to us, so we have provided a list of things which you can expect from us.

What Students Can Expect

- No adult leader will bully you physically or emotionally at any time.
- No adult leader will touch you in a manner that makes you feel uncomfortable. If you do feel uncomfortable, please let a staff member (Doug, Zac or Harlie) know immediately.
- No adult leader will contact you or attempt to build a relationship with you outside of the context of ministry.
- No adult leader will ask you to be alone with them without your parent's permission (and yours!).
- No adult leader will be allowed to give you a ride home without your parent's permission.
- If you feel that an adult leader or another student is contacting you inappropriately (phone, email, facebook, etc.), please let a staff member (Doug, Zac or Harlie) know immediately.
- You will be asked to correct any behavior that an adult feels is inappropriate.
- If you do not correct inappropriate behavior, your parents will be contacted and you may be asked to go home.
- You will not be allowed to bully physically or emotionally another student. If you feel you are being bullied, please let an adult leader know immediately.
